DAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

My friend dropped his Italian pastries on the floor. I cannoli imagine what he's going through.

Quote for the week

"Your living is determined not so much by what life brings to you as by the attitude you bring to life; not so much by what happens to you as by the way your mind looks at what happens."
(Khalil Gibran)

GOOD NEWS STORIES

YOUNG RUNNER ENCOURAGES STRUGGLING OPPONENT AT FINISH LINE

Cooper Kohanski said he couldn't leave the finish line without checking on his opponent, Andrew Hawkinson, a runner from Baldwinsville.

"When I turned around, I heard a kid sobbing, which is common because it really does hurt so I wanted to make sure he was okay," Cooper told CNY Central.

It was Andrew's first ever cross-country race.

"He said a lot of encouraging stuff. He said I did a good job [and] I would be okay because I was out of breath. I couldn't really walk, I just needed to settle down. Once we got up we had a fist bump which I thought was pretty cool," Andrew told the news station. Andrew's mom said she was surprised to see her son being comforted by a runner from another team.

"It just really fed my soul and I was just really impressed. I wouldn't have expected somebody from the other team to check on him," she said.
