Michelle Obama's Best Advice For Students - How To Succeed In Life - YouTube

With culminatings happening, and the last 2 weeks filled with assessments, it is important to ask yourself, "Who am I going to be?"

Michelle Obama, in this short video, gives us something fundamental to reflect on, and in the process of reflecting on it, may it inspire as well.

Good luck during these days, and remember, you have it in you to succeed. Resist the temptation to cheat--you are only cheating yourself on growing as a person. Use the skills, the talents and the abilities you have been taught.

Grow through the process.

Don't be afraid of falling or failing--there is a strength that comes with getting back up that cannot be learned any other way.

The Work of Christmas

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and the princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
The work of Christmas begins:

To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among people,
To make music in the heart

~Howard Thurman

GOOD NEWS STORIES

A MINING CITY GOES GREEN (CANADA)

Greater Sudbury in northern Ontario was once one of the largest producers of nickel on the planet, but the 2008 global financial crisis and dwindling reserves led to a sharp decline in output. The area's nickel mining was also notorious for causing air pollution and was even at one time the largest source of sulphur dioxide in the world.

For more than 40 years, however, the city has embraced a very different pursuit: tree-planting. Since 1978, nearly 13,000 volunteers have transformed roughly 3,400 out of 80,000 hectares of barren landscapes—the devastating result of nearly a century's worth of mining and smelting—into thriving greenery. Last July, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and primatologist Jane Goodall helped plant the project's 10-millionth tree. Thanks to the re-greening effort, Greater Sudbury now boasts some of the cleanest air in Ontario, and there's hope it can inspire other municipalities to follow suit.

Prayer

Loving God,
Your love for me astounds me. Sometimes it's too much for me to contemplate. I even do what I can to resist You. Help me understand who I am because of You, and that You mean me no harm. Help me to be comfortable being me and using my skills and talents to succeed at school so I can be all You intend me to be.
Amen.
