Valentine's Day: What's 'love' got to do with it?

This Tuesday is Valentine's Day, and it might be really easy to get caught up in the romantic aspect of love, where we feel the butterflies in our stomach, we get the sweaty palms and we are nervous around the person to which we are attracted. However, this day is a good day to reflect on the more profound aspect of love and that is 'agape' love. A good indicator of what this love is about comes from 1

Corinthians 13.4-8:

"Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; love is not irritable or resentful; love does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends."

As an interesting activity, insert your name in the blanks below and see how you well you do in terms of living up to this profound love. If it's any consolation, I fail miserably. Thankfully, God never stops loving us and never gives up on us!

"_____ is patient; _____ is kind; _____ is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. _____ does not insist on its own way; _____ is not irritable or resentful; _____ does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth."

Another passage I really love about love comes from the first letter of John.

"Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God...God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them...There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear."

(1 John 4.7, 16, 18)

GOOD NEWS STORIES

'REFUGEES HARNESS THE POWER OF STORYTELLING

Jordan |

Built around the belief that everyone has a right to tell their own stories, an organization in Jordan is hosting mindfulness, creative writing and public-speaking workshops for more than 1,500 refugees. The sessions, which have also been held in cities across Turkey, Lebanon and Germany, are hosted by #MeWe International. The non-profit was founded in 2014 and helps participants work through severe trauma brought on by discrimination and, in many cases, violence.

According to New York-based founder Mohsin Mohi Ud Din, the key to the workshops is that they are taught by other refugees, creating a unique community that's "for the people, by the people."

The results are compelling, he says: participants have reported reduced aggression and improved communication skills. At the end of the sessions, they're invited to tell their stories through theatre productions, book projects and the like. —Robert Liwanag

Prayer

Loving God,
You called us to be in relationship with one another and promised to dwell
wherever two or three are gathered.
In our community,
we are many different people;
we come from many different places,
have many different cultures.
Open our hearts
that we may be bold
in finding the riches of inclusion
and the treasures
of diversity among us.
Amen.
