Holocaust Memorial Day: Stages of Genocide

Gregory H Stanton, President of Genocide Watch developed the 10 stages of genocide which explains the different stages which lead to genocide. At each of the earlier stages there is an opportunity for members of the community or the International Community to halt the stages and stop genocide before it happens. ## GOOD NEWS STORIES

'BRAVE BESSIE' GETS HER LIKENESS ON NEW BARBIE AS MATTEL HONORS THE FIRST BLACK FEMALE PILOT

A brave young Black woman who became a pilot in the 1920s—and even walked on the wings of airplanes—has become the latest hero to be honored in the Barbie doll series featuring 'Inspiring Women'.

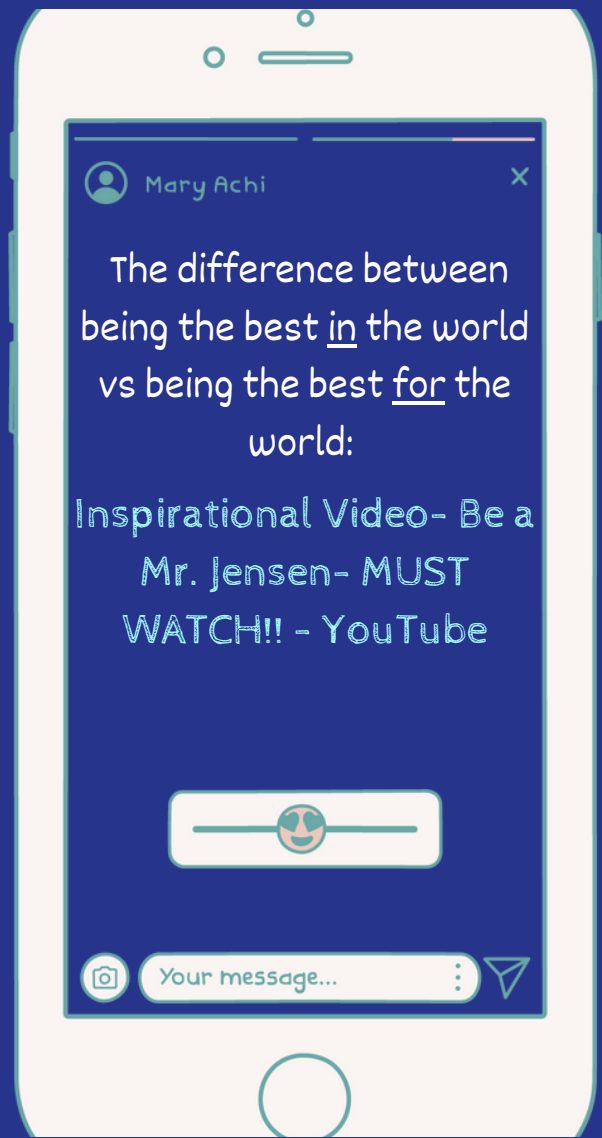

Known for her daring adventures as a barnstorming stunt flyer, Bessie Coleman broke new ground in the field of aviation. She also inspired generations of Black, Native American, and female pilots.

Despite facing racial and gender discrimination, Bessie Coleman became the first Black and Native American female aviator.

She also became the first Black person to earn an international pilot's license. She had to go all the way to France to get the license, because there were no pilot training opportunities for Black women in the US at the time. She also became the first Black person to earn an international pilot's license. She had to go all the way to France to get the license, because there were no pilot training opportunities for Black women in the US at the time. The 'Brave Bessie' doll was sculpted to her likeness and dons a traditional olive-green aviator suit, including a cap with her initials "BC".

"It was great to learn more about such a daring wonderful woman who was ahead of her time," said the doll's packaging designer Priscila Bara.

Bessie's great niece, Gigi Coleman, teamed up with Mattel to make the Barbie. "Keeping Bessie's legacy alive has always been a labor of love for my family. We hope through this doll more people will discover Bessie's story and be inspired."

Your message...

Prayer 🙏

Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either God will shield you from suffering, or God will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace, then.

Put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations, and say continually: "The Lord is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in God and I am helped. God is not only with me but in me; and I in Him." (St. Francis de Sales)
