DAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

I once swallowed a book of synonyms.

It's given me thesaurus throat I've ever had.

Quote for the week

"I'm not where I want to be. I'm also not where I was. And that is progress in every sense of the word. I'm where I am because of perseverance, determination and love."

GOOD NEWS STORIES

BOSTON EXPANDS TUITION-FREE COMMUNITY COLLEGE PROGRAM TO ALL RESIDENTS

The city of Boston has expanded its tuition-free community college program to include all city residents regardless of age and income.

Starting this fall, any Boston resident will be eligible to pursue a degree or certificate at one of six partnering local institutions without paying to attend.

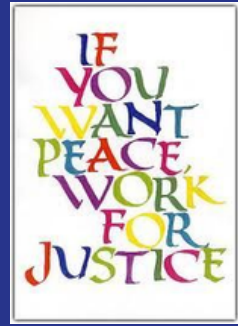

The community colleges participating in the program include Benjamin Franklin Cummings Institute of Technology, Bunker Hill Community College, Massasoit Community College, MassBay Community College, Roxbury Community College and Urban College of Boston.

Boston's mayor Michelle Wu said she believes that "every Boston resident who wants to earn the skills and knowledge to give back to our communities and build a life here should be able to do so." Boston's tuition-free community college program has served over 1,000 students since 2016, according to city officials.

*Loving God, send Your Spirit upon me, as You did upon Your Son, that I might choose the actions that bring forth justice to the afflicted, light into darkness, sight for the blind and liberation from those held captive.
Amen.*
