GOOD NEWS STORIES

MAKES THEM FEEL GOOD ABOUT THEMSELVES': KANSAS MAN MOWS LAWNS FOR FREE

"A man in Kansas is using his lawnmowing business to do some good in the community.

When he sees a lawn in bad shape, he knocks on the homeowner's door and offers to take care of the lawn for free.

Spencer has owned a lawn care company in Wichita, KS, for 11 years now. His team maintains about 40 properties per week. About a year-and-a-half ago, Spencer saw a few videos of lawn care professionals mowing lawns for free.

"That's pretty cool, I thought — maybe I can start a YouTube channel and do this once a week," he said.

He began knocking on the doors of homes whose yards were in desperate need of lawn care and filming the work using a camera on a tripod.

Today, SB Mowing has over 1 million followers on YouTube.

In one video, he knocks on the door of Mark Edens, a veteran who served 9 years in the army.

"I got thousands of comments from people saying, 'hey, how can we donate to this man? We'd love to help a veteran out!'" Spencer said.

After finishing his lawn, Spencer returned to surprise Mark with $10,000 in cash.

Spencer says that he is able to take care of several lawns a week for free, although some of the more difficult jobs take several days to complete.

"I'll be there from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and some take several days to finish," he said.

"The number-one thing that people tell me when I get finished is, 'Oh my gosh, it doesn't even look like my house anymore!'" he noted.

"It makes them feel good about themselves, and where they live."

Prayer

Loving God,
we hear and read gossip on the TV, the internet, in newspapers, and in everyday conversations. Help us overcome the temptation to gossip or say negative things about another person. Give us a pure heart so the words we speak are positive, kind, and compassionate.

Amen.
