WEEK OF OCT. 2 - 5, 2023

DECA meeting after school today in the LIBRARY! - See you all there!

Attention Grade 12 Students - Any grade 12s interested in attending a trip to Brock University on October 12 - you will experience a lecture/business case study led by a professor, have an opportunity to speak to recruiters, and have a tour of the campus. Spots are limited, so please see Mrs. Laferriere today if interested - we need to confirm with Brock by end of day today.

Any grade 11 or 12 student who likes trivia, fun; and friendship then come on out to Senior School Reach. Practices are every Tuesday and Friday in room 224 at the end of school.

Attention grade 9's and 10's - if you are interested in trivia, please join us Wednesday after school in Room 224. See you there!

Assumption's Student Council has once again organized a Thanksgiving Food Drive with all donations going to the Burlington Food Bank. All homeroom classes are asked to collect as many non-perishable food and household items as they can between now and the pick-up date on Wednesday, October 4th. Prizes will be awarded to the top three classes. Let's keep this amazing tradition running and continue to make a positive impact for families in need!

Hey grade 9s! Are you interested in representing your grade on Student Council, helping run events and gaining leadership skills? Student Council wants to know why YOU would make a good rep? Record a short (approx.. 2 min.) video that tells us who you are, why you're interested in running for grade 9 rep, share your strengths, skills, and your commitments inside and outside of school. We'd love to hear your ideas for getting students involved. Submissions are due this Thursday, Oct. 5th. See the Instagram post on where to send them. Good luck to all candidates! Go Blue Go!

It's that time of year again for CRUSADING 4 CANS! Sign up is this week! Get a group of 4 to register, and decide who your captain will be. The Captain will be responsible for picking up the package of flyers a week before Halloween. See Ms. R. if you have any questions.

There will be a Best Buddies meeting today after school in rm 202. Have your shirts and ideas ready to go!

Chess Club starts today in rm 304!

(On Wednesdays:)

Every Wednesday in the Piazza over your lunch !!! Join us for Wellness Wednesday ! Colouring , bracelets, board games and music!

DAD JOKE OF THE WEEK

What's the longest word in the English language smiles.

The first and last letters are a mile apart.

Quote for the week

"Write it.

Publish it.

Crochet it.

Sauté it.

Whatever.

MAKE."

BAKING IN A WAR ZONE

Despite suffering sieges, massacres and displacement because of the Russian invasion, Ukrainians have defied expectations and put up a strong fight. The same can be said for the hard-working team at Bakehouse in Kyiv. When war first broke out, the bakery's chef and owner, Anna Makievska, left the country with her two young children. Her employees, however, refused to close shop. Not only are the people behind Bakehouse still operating the business, but they have been giving away up to 1,000 loaves of bread every day since the beginning of the conflict to soldiers, seniors and hospital workers. Their kindness has inspired others: When English sourdough-bread baker Andrew Green heard about Bakehouse's story, he enlisted other chefs to donate recipes for a charity cookbook, Knead Peace. Proceeds from the project go to the Disasters Emergency Committee's Ukraine Humanitarian Appeal. Though she's currently based in Portugal to be near family members, Makievska is still helping keep Bakehouse running. For the team, these loaves are more than just food; they are something good being created in the face of war and suffering. "And we will continue to bake them for as long as our country needs them," says Makievska. —Robert Liwanag

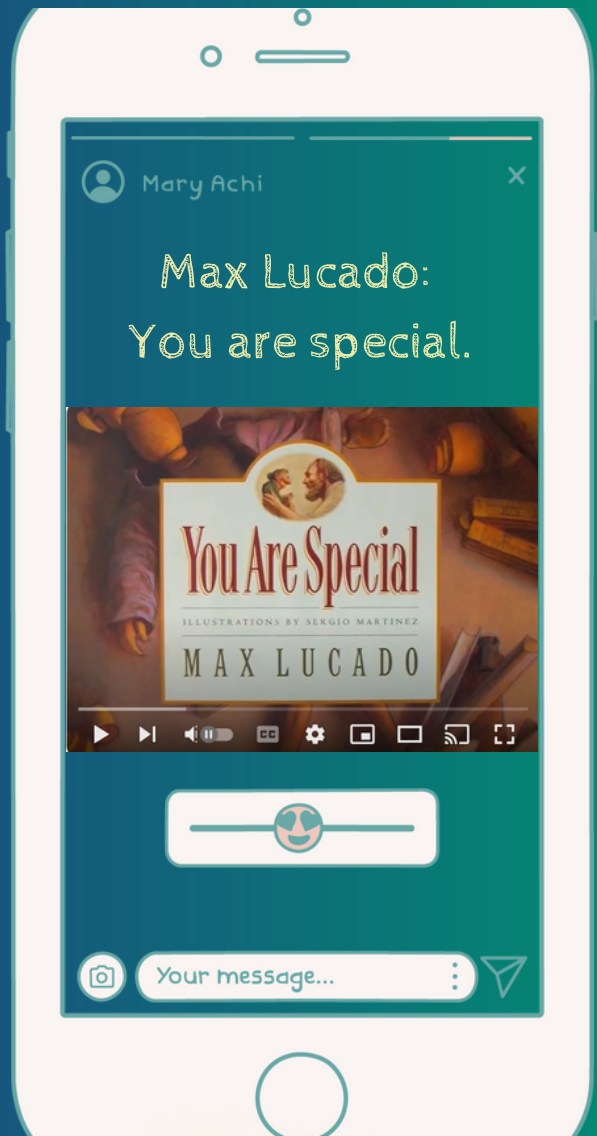

Prayer

God of graciousness and love,
 I pause to become aware that You are present within and around me. Your loving grace fills me now and strengthens my soul to see what is good, and true and beautiful and loving.
 Help me to allow Your powerful present to fill me and increase my ability to see and hear You.
 Guide my actions today that I might be earnest in my search for truth and just in how I treat those around me.
 Let Your grace fill me now.
 Amen.
