

"If you want peace, work for justice." (Pope St. Paul IV)

*"A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you, and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh."
(Ezekiel 36.26)*

"Do not lose sight of the distressing situation in which a small part of humanity lives in opulence, while an increasing number of people are denied dignity and their most elementary rights are ignored or violated."
(Pope Francis)

JUSTICE

"Justice will not be served until those who are unaffected are as outraged as those who are."
(Benjamin Franklin)

Why is it difficult to get people motivated to work for justice?

What does God mean when God says our heart of stone will be replaced with a heart of flesh?

What justice issues most matter to you?

What can we do more of in this school to work together for justice?
