YOUTH SOCIAL ACTION RETREAT

WHAT:

Students will experience university life while attending a series of workshops and engage in leadership activities that are lead by current University of Waterloo students, faculty, and community leaders. We want to help foster students' interest in the social sciences, provide them with tangible tools and skills for creating positive change in their communities, and highlight career paths that exist in the social science fields.

THE RETREAT:

The Youth Social Action Retreat will be held from Saturday, May 9, 2020 at 10:00am until Sunday, May 10th at 11:00am. Students will be staying in residence at Renison University College in Waterloo, Ontario.

There is no cost to attend this event, but students are responsible for providing their own transportation to and from Renison University College.

WHO:

The Youth Social Action Retreat is intended for Grade 10 and 11 students who have a passion for the social sciences.

HOW TO NOMINATE YOUR STUDENT:

Throughout the school year, social science teachers can nominate their students to attend the Youth Social Action Retreat. Nominated students can find more information and register for the retreat by visiting:
