

HRE 4M

COURSE BREAKDOWN

Course Overview

- This course is directed toward the clear identification of Catholic moral principles and the concrete application of these principles in the lives of students.
- Essentially, this course works to help students understand morality generally, their own personal moral code more specifically and how to continually shape and improve their consciences to enable good decision making.
- Topics Covered = morality, vocation and call beyond high school, social justice, sin, reconciliation, educating our conscience and moral decision making, etc.

Take this if....

- you are using this to apply to university and want more of an academic feel.
- you enjoy a traditional classroom environment and traditional mix of assignments (some papers, tests, presentations etc.).
- you need more teacher direction and very clear expectations around what you need to complete.

YOU WILL LOVE....

- chances to learn more about vocational pathways and explore your own vocations.
- opportunities to analyze and discuss a variety of ethical issues that face us.
- the Grade 12 Retreat - an active and fun chance to bond with your classmates before you graduate.

In Search of the Good - Mixed Level

HRE 40

COURSE BREAKDOWN

Course Overview

- This course is directed toward the clear identification of Catholic moral principles and the concrete application of these principles in the lives of students.
- Essentially, this course works to help students understand morality generally, their own personal moral code more specifically and how to continually shape and improve their consciences to enable good decision making.
- Topics covered include: Vocation, Marriage, Social Justice, Secular Moral Theories, Decision Making Models, the Sermon on the Mount, Freedom, stage theories around moral development and more.

Take this if....

- you are looking for more discussion and hands on activities and less of an academic feel.
- you enjoy a traditional classroom environment and traditional mix of assignments.
- you need more teacher direction and very clear expectations around what you need to complete.

YOU WILL LOVE....

- the Vocation Panel - chances to learn more about vocational pathways and explore your own vocations.
- opportunities to discuss a variety of ethical issues that face us and practice ethical decision making.
- the Grade 12 Retreat - an active and fun chance to bond with your classmates before you graduate.

In Search of the Good - Open Level

HSE 4M

COURSE BREAKDOWN

Course Overview

- The aim of this course is to assist students in understanding themselves as moral persons living the way of Christ.
- Through the process of inquiry, students will learn about historical and contemporary equity and social justice issues in Canada and globally. They will explore power relations and the impact of a variety of factors on equity and social justice.
- Topics Covered include Social Injustices (poverty, racism, First Nation, Metis and Inuit challenges, environmental issues), sin, reconciliation, etc.
- To excel in this course you must have the following skill set: problem solving, critical thinking, collaboration, organizational and communication skills.

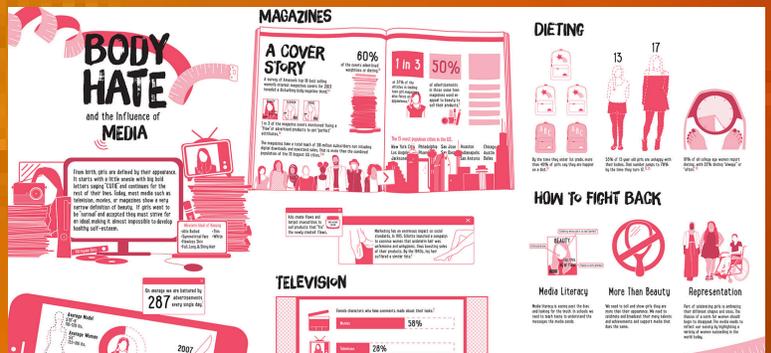

Take this if....

- you are planning to use this credit to apply to university.
- you like doing deep dives into specific topics.
- you ask great questions.
- you excel at and/or enjoy research and presenting.
- you are a very self-directed learner who has no problem motivating themselves to complete work.
- you enjoy having choice around what topics to pursue and freedom to investigate.

YOU WILL LOVE....

- Discussing and analyzing complex issues of injustice.
- uncovering the structures that perpetuate hunger, poverty, inequality, genocide, terrorism, human trafficking, environmental damage etc.
- the Grade 12 Retreat - an active and fun chance to bond with your classmates before you graduate.

Social Justice (Inquiry Based)

HSE 4MT COURSE BREAKDOWN

Course Overview

- Students will learn about the Christian vision of leadership and will apply those principles to equity and social justice issues. They will explore power relations and the impact of a variety of factors on equity and social justice.
- Assignments will actively involve the students in different forms of justice work at the local, national and international levels. They will spearhead and reflect on 3 different initiatives and assist others.
- Topics Covered include Social Injustices (poverty, racism, First Nation, Metis and Inuit challenges, environmental issues), sin, reconciliation, etc.
- To excel in this course you must have the following skill set: collaboration, initiative, creativity, organizational and communication skills.

Take this if....

- you are planning to use this credit to apply to university.
- you like being actively involved in the school or want to get more involved.
- you excel at and/or enjoy organizing events, charity drives and awareness campaigns.
- you are a natural leader who can spearhead initiatives.
- you enjoy having choice around what topics to pursue and freedom to investigate.

YOU WILL LOVE....

- working towards positive change in the world through charity and justice.
- uncovering the structures that perpetuate hunger, poverty, inequality, genocide, terrorism, human trafficking, environmental damage etc.
- the Grade 12 Retreat - an active and fun chance to bond with your classmates before you graduate.

Social Justice (Leadership Based)

