Update on Racist Email Sent on April 6, 2021:

The Halton Regional Police cyber crimes and hate crimes units continue to investigate the racist and hate-motivated email sent to all Loyola students on April 6, 2021. At this point we do not have any updated information regarding the individual(s) that sent the email. We continue to support the police in their ongoing and active investigation.

We continue to support our students in processing the incident and the ongoing trauma of anti-Black racism. Our Social Worker and Child and Youth Counsellor facilitated two sessions to support our students and will continue to do so virtually. We are also working with our students and community to develop a Black Advisory Council at Loyola to create a safe space for racialized students to discuss and unpack issues related to race, equity and inclusion at Loyola.

Quad 3 Final Report Cards:

Quad 3 final report cards will be emailed to parents and guardians at the end of the day on Thursday April 29, 2021. Please ensure your email address is accurate in SIS to ensure you receive the report card.

If you have any questions about your child's course progress, please reach out to their teacher directly. All staff emails can be found on our Loyola website.

Quad 3 Resource Return:

Thank you to all of our students who returned their quad three resources on Thursday last week. For anyone that has anything outstanding- please return any textbooks or school resources to the grey bins at the front entrance of the school. Please do not enter the school and ensure that the items you return are labelled with your name. Please ensure quad three resources are returned by Friday April 30 to ensure we can redistribute the resources for quad four.
