Loyola School Crest Commentary

Celestia Peritore, Graduate

The Crest for St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Secondary School was designed to reflect the many qualities of life at Loyola and to define the goals of education in our unique community. At the top of the crest, we see the letters IHS. St. Ignatius of Loyola adopted IHS, meaning the name of Jesus as his seal of the military Society of Jesus. Today it remains as part of the identifiable symbol of the Jesuits – the Roman Catholic religious order established by St. Ignatius. Above these initials, appear THREE NAILS and the CROSS to represent Christ's sacrifice for all humanity.

The OAK LEAVES on either side of the Jesuit symbol represent the oak tree, which symbolizes strength and endurance – qualities which we strive to build in ourselves. Our community, Oakville, is so named for the mighty oak.

The STAR which binds the oak leaves together represents Jesus Christ, the one whom Ignatius followed and to whom he points us as we grow in faith and develop our special gifts for the benefit of others – in our family, in our community and in our world.

The OPEN BIBLE depicts our openness to the Word of God – which is our source and our guide as we make life decisions. This is the book we will cherish with great reverence all the days of our life.

With the CROSS, we are reminded that everything is not what it seems on the surface. From this great tragedy of Christ's passion and death has come the gift of eternal life and salvation for all. We draw our strength from the one who willingly gave up his life that we might live more fully and share in eternal salvation.

The SUN – an aspect of the Jesuit symbol represents fire and the Christian symbol of zeal – it is interesting to note that the word "IGNACE" translates as "FIRE".

At the base of the crest is Ignatius' key principle which later became the Jesuit motto: In Latin: AD MAJOREM DEI GLORIAM, meaning "all for the greater glory of God".

Friends, we are forever bound by our ties to Loyola. We will strive to uphold these symbols of our faith and of our beloved school – all of these symbols together reflect what Ignatius tried to leave us as his legacy...the awareness that no matter where life's paths lead us, all we think, say and do is all...FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD.

Closing Remarks

John McCoy, Graduate

On behalf of the Graduating Class of 2021, we would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have participated in or contributed to our virtual graduation. Thank you to Father Allen, pastor of St Matthew's Parish, for your spiritual guidance as we've celebrated our faith together, and to Father Tim Hingston who is looking down on us from heaven and sending us his blessing. Finally, thank you to all those who have worked tirelessly throughout this challenging time to help us reach the finish line and to make this virtual celebration a reality. Beginning with our Director of Education, Mr. Daly and our Superintendent, Mrs. Bakaic, thank you for sending us your special messages. Thank you to the Loyola administration, teachers and support staff for helping us grow and for making this a reality.

Thank you to our parents and guardians for travelling this road with us, for being with us through moments of triumph and through those of struggle.

On behalf of Mrs. Halycz, Mrs. Morrow, Mr. Busby, and the entire St. Ignatius of Loyola Catholic Secondary School staff, congratulations to our graduating class of 2021!

Thank you to the students and families who are joining us here from at home and around the world.

In closing I leave you with the words of the author Ralph Waldo Emerson, "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

And always remember, once a Hawk always a Hawk!

Now please enjoy this Loyola tradition which began 18 years ago, staff storytime, followed by our graduation slideshow.
