The image shows a user interface for selecting a course. A modal window is open, displaying details for an 'English' course. The background shows a search results page with a sidebar on the left and a search bar at the top. The modal window has a title bar with a close button and the word 'English'. Below the title, the course name 'English' is displayed, followed by its details: 'Grade 9', 'ENG1D1', '1 Credit', and 'Academic'. A detailed description of the course follows, explaining its focus on communication skills and its role as a prerequisite for Grade 10. Below the description, there is a 'Course Status' section with three buttons: 'Planned', 'In-Progress', and 'Completed'. At the bottom of the modal, there is a large blue 'Add Course' button. The background interface includes a search bar, a sidebar with filters, and a list of search results for 'English' courses.

This course is designed to develop the oral communication, reading, writing, and media literacy skills that students need for success in their secondary school academic programs and in their daily lives. Students will analyse literary texts from contemporary and historical periods, interpret informational and graphic texts, and create oral, written, and media texts in a variety of forms. An important focus will be on the use of strategies that contribute to effective communication. The course is intended to prepare students for the Grade 10 academic English course, which leads to university or college preparation courses in Grades 11 and 12. Students considering moving from one destination to another (e.g., applied to academic; academic to applied) are strongly encouraged to take a summer school course to encourage success in the transition.
