

OUR WOMEN NOW

CALLING COMMUNITY MEMBERS TO 'OWN' A CALL FOR JUSTICE THAT WAS ESTABLISHED BY THE MISSING AND MURDERED INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND GIRLS INQUIRY

This virtual summit will include youth, Indigenous influencers and constituents committed to speaking to this National Crisis. Indigenous Grandmothers will address centuries of colonialism and history of violence against women with a strong message of moving towards protecting our women, girls and LGBTQ2S+.

Our influential speakers are Marion Buller (Chief Commissioner of the MMIWG Inquiry) and Charlene Bearhead (curriculum writer for "They Will Guide Us"), "We Matter" Youth Ambassadors, drummers, dancers and other special guests!
